TABLE OF CONTENTS

Dear Valued Customers,

It has been more than 50 years that Prat is serving artists, photographers, architects and designers, from students and beginners to the top level professionals.

Along all these years, we have evolved, offering now a wide range of products, not only for presentation but also for transport, storage and sketching.

Not all of these products are in this catalog, so feel free to visit prat-usa.com to see our complete line.

As business changes, we have also developed an exclusive dropship program so that you can serve your customers with any of our products without having to stock all of them.

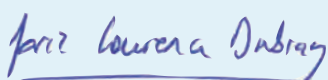

And, since everyone likes to be special, we created a very easy customization program for sketchbooks and journals, that can also be extended to any other items.

Most of you have known Prat for a long time, but are you aware of how many various items we have created? Have you noticed that our prices remain affordable for all?

Just have a look at Prat products, pricing and compare...

Quality + Design + Price
Que Demander de Plus ? ***

I sincerely thank you for your business during all these years and value your creative spirit.

Marie-Laurence Dubray
President, Prat Paris
